From the first moment the visitor tastes the unique combination of hospitality and tradition. During the hearty breakfast you will enjoy the homemade bread, the hot trahanas, the homemade marmalades, and the warm zimaropites and cheese pies, prepared by the hands of Vangelio. But above all, the warm welcome and the company of Gianni’s family, around the fireplace of the lobby, will make you feel sure for your choices, and will recommend you the best routes for you to explore and discover some of the most beautiful areas of Zagori.
